

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

This matter is before the court on Plaintiff's failure to comply with this court's Order (Dkt. #22) requiring the parties to file a Certificate as to Interested Parties as required by LR 7.1-1. The court's Order (Dkt. #22) entered July 11, 2013, required the parties to file their Certificate as to Interested Parties no later than 4:00 p.m., July 23, 2013, and further advised the parties that their failure to timely comply with the court's order may result in sanctions. Defendants filed their Certificate of Interested Parties (Dkt. #23) July 19, 2013. To date, Plaintiff has failed to comply with this court's order.

The purpose of the certificate is to advise the court of all parties who may have an interest in the outcome of the case so that the assigned judges may evaluate whether they have a conflict of interest which requires recusal. Filing the certificate is a simple matter. Failing to comply with the Local Rules of Practice, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and the court's orders may result in sanctions up to and including case dispositive sanctions. If the Plaintiff knows of no other parties who may have an interest in the outcome of this case, a simple statement to that effect will suffice. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED Plaintiff shall show cause, in writing, no later than September 3, 2013, why sanctions should not be imposed for his failure to file a Certificate as to Interested Parties and his failure to comply with this court's Order (Dkt. #22). Filing the Certificate of Interested parties on or

1 before August 19, 2013, will satisfy the court that sanctions are not warranted, and no further response
2 to this order to show cause shall be required.
